Favorite Four Corners Trails - The Good, The Bad and the RV Square Tower Trail (Hovenweep National Monument) Hovenweep National Monument in northeastern Utah is not near anything, but if you're in the Four Corners area and looking for a great trail, I'd suggest making time for this small but significant public area. It's only a 1.75 mile trail, but the close up views of numerous towers built over 800 years ago are second to none.
